Madison, Wisconsin – In honor of the Wisconsin State Capitol's Centennial, Capitol Tours will for the first time offer twilight tours of the exterior of the Capitol and its grounds. This new tour will detail features of the Capitol grounds including the statues, monuments, trees and gardens plus the history of the building.

Tours will occur in the evening on Monday, July 10th, Monday, July 24th, and Wednesday, August 9th. The tours will last approximately 45 minutes and begin at the Colonel Heg statue on the East Wing walkway (King Street) of the Capitol.

Tours are free, but space is limited and pre-registration is required. Please call 608-266-0382 to register.
