Today, American Bridge 21st Century issued the following statement after U.S. Postmaster General Louis DeJoy issued a hollow announcement about “changes” to USPS service.

“Griftmaster General Louis DeJoy’s announcement is no cause for celebration. Under his leadership, millions of dollars worth of mail sorting machinery were destroyed or trashed. This announcement does not address major sources of delay or reverse guidance for letter carriers on making extra trips – encouraging postal workers to leave mail behind,” said Kyle Morse, an American Bridge 21st Century spokesperson. “A full investigation into Trump and DeJoy’s attempts to sabotage the USPS and suppress the vote is needed to undo the damage they’ve already caused and ensure a safe, secure election this November.”
