WASHINGTON — U.S. Senator Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) made the following remarks in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. Day:

“Our Constitution begins with the statement of a goal: ‘We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union. ...’ As much as any man, Dr. King’s courageous leadership and inspiring words furthered America’s realization of that worthy goal. On this day set aside to honor Dr. King, let us dedicate our efforts to America’s continuing perfection.”
