Senator Stroebel: Prevailing Wage will Save Money this Budget
Prevailing wage is fiscal policy

Madison, WI – Senator Duey Stroebel (R-Cedarburg) released the following statement after the chairmen of JFC announced the starting point of budget deliberations:

I was disappointed full prevailing wage repeal has been pulled as a non-fiscal policy item. As other states have experienced, and we have begun to see in Wisconsin for local governments, prevailing wage repeal saves taxpayer resources.

The Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance evaluation determined the repeal would save Wisconsin taxpayers tens of millions of dollars.

I plan to continue to follow the JFC process as I did yesterday by attending the public hearing at State Fair Park.

When budgeting, our priority should always be to pass policy reforms that save money through efficiencies. Prevailing wage does that.
