AG Schimel Statement on Death of Wisconsin State Patrol Trooper

Madison, Wis. – Attorney General Brad Schimel issued the following statement after Trooper Anthony J. Borostowski died in the line of duty.

“Today, I join Trooper Anthony J. Borostowski’s family, both civilian and law enforcement, in mourning. Wisconsin and our nation are better off because Trooper Borostowski dedicated his 13-year career to keeping our communities safe, both as a member of the Wisconsin State Patrol and a medic in the Wisconsin Army National Guard. My thoughts and prayers, and those of the team at the Wisconsin Department of Justice, are with Trooper Borostowski and his loved ones.”
