Statement from Senator Jon Erpenbach on Anthem withdraw from Wisconsin ACA Marketplace.

“From day one, Republicans in Wisconsin and nationally have done nothing but try to sabotage the Affordable Care Act. Instead of trying to increase access to health insurance, they continue to put up road blocks. Continued threats by the GOP to eliminate insurance subsidies for working families have been what the insurance industry itself has called the ‘single most destabilizing factor in the individual market.’”

“Republicans have now created a great deal of uncertainty for the over 200,000 Wisconsinites who rely on the private market health insurance plans available because of the Affordable Care Act. Taking health insurance away from 23 million Americans isn’t a better plan.”
