When Generations Connect: Communicating Across Generational Divides event on January 26th

Green Bay, Wisconsin – (December 6, 2017) – Phil Gwoke, Keynote Speaker and Consultant at BridgeWorks, will conduct the program for our 6th Annual Servant Leadership Summit. As the latest research emerges and a new generation hops on the scene, Gwoke is evolving to deliver the most relevant, cutting-edge, and fresh programs on the generations. He will teach proven strategies for sharpening your generational edge. Learn new information about generational differences to effectively serve as a leader, co-worker, friend, or family member.

This Servant Leadership Summit supports our free Servant Leaders of Wisconsin meetings throughout the year. Servant Leaders of Wisconsin, or S.L.O.W., is a grassroots effort founded by Joe Kiedinger of Prophit to promote and support the Servant Leadership movement in Wisconsin. The idea that leaders need to “slow” down and meet the legitimate needs of their greatest asset... people!

The event will be held from 7:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. at The Marq, 3177 French Road, De Pere. Ticket purchase includes a hot breakfast buffet, workshop and BridgeWorks’ newly released book: Managing Millennials for Dummies. Discounted group table purchases are available.
