Appellate Court Judge Paul Reilly Endorses Laura Lau for Waukesha Co. Judge Waukesha County Conservatives getting behind Laura Lau for Circuit Court Judge April 3

WAUKESHA COUNTY—MARCH 22, 2018—Appeals Court Judge Paul Reilly of Waukesha today joined a lengthy list of Waukesha County Conservatives endorsing Laura Lau for Waukesha County Circuit Court, Branch 12. Election Day is April 3.

“I am endorsing Commissioner Laura Lau for the position of Waukesha County Circuit Court Judge and I urge others to support her for this important position in our courts,” Wisconsin Appellate Court Judge Paul Reilly says. “I have known Commissioner Lau for over twenty years, first when I was a practicing lawyer, then when I was a trial court judge and now as a Court of Appeals judge.”

“Commissioner Lau has always been well prepared and committed to the rule of law in her rulings and decisions,” Judge Reilly says. “Over the last 16 years in her courtroom, Commissioner Lau has always been hard working, well prepared and respectful of all parties and their counsel that appear before her. Her ethics and integrity are beyond reproach. If elected to the bench on April 3, I know that her courtroom will be run efficiently, impartially and fairly. Commissioner Lau has all of the qualities that will make a fine judge: intelligence, common sense, integrity and honesty. Waukesha County is lucky to have such a well-qualified candidate and I urge others to vote for her on April 3.”
