'Lau for Judge' Campaign New Website Clarifies Differences vs. Opponent

Lau's Waukesha County experience, support, commitment clearly makes her local choice

WAUKESHA COUNTY—MARCH 19, 2018—The Lau for Judge campaign today launched LauForJudge.com. Waukesha County voters visiting the new site will see Lau clearly has more experience, support and commitment to Waukesha County than her opponent for Waukesha County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 12. Election Day is April 3.

The difference in experience between the candidates is substantial. As a commissioner, Lau has presided over more than 20,000 cases. Her opponent, on the other hand, has appeared in only one case in Waukesha County.

“My opponent has tried one small claims case in Waukesha County,” Lau says. “Voters in Waukesha County trust people with strong ties to Waukesha and a strong record of commitment to our community. My calling to serve Waukesha County runs as deep as my 50 years of living here.”

According to the latest campaign finance report, Lau's Waukesha County supporters outpace her opponent 206 to 9. People give to those they trust and know, Lau says.

There's a significant difference in the candidates on the April 3 ballot for Waukesha Co. Circuit Court:

- Lau is the only candidate presiding over 20,000 cases in Waukesha Co. Courts
- Lau is the only candidate presiding over civil, criminal, family, juvenile and probate circuit courts
- Lau is the only candidate with 16 years presiding over Waukesha Co. Courts
- Lau is the only candidate applying the rule of law in Waukesha Co. Courts
- Lau is the only candidate working to keep Waukesha Co. safe from criminals

Waukesha Co. Law Enforcement Backs Lau for Judge

“If ever there were people with a genuine interest in electing a judge who keeps criminals behind bars, it's Waukesha County Law Enforcement,” Lau says. She's endorsed by:

- Waukesha Co. Sheriff Eric Severson (Republican)
- Waukesha Co. District Attorney Sue Opper (Republican)
- Former Waukesha Co. Sheriffs Dan Trawick & Arnie Moncada (Republicans)
- Waukesha Deputy Sheriff's Association
- Waukesha Co. circuit court & municipal judges & police chiefs (Learn who at LauForJudge.com)

Waukesha Co. Conservative Leaders Endorse Lau for Judge
