

Schroeder Campaign:Lafollette's 40 years of Failure

We urge Wisconsinites to join our Campaign: "Remove the Secretary of State Position from Wisconsin"

Jay Schroeder pledged to be the candidate to eliminate the Secretary of State position of Wisconsin. Jay believes that through a strong grassroots campaign for Secretary of State, we will be able to involve voters. Jay will show the ineffectiveness that the position of Secretary of State has had for too long in Wisconsin.

As a fellow Wisconsinite from Neenah, Wisconsin, Jay Schroeder's campaign has continued to promote the elimination of the Secretary of State position from Wisconsin. In April, the State Treasure position is up for a vote to be eliminated from the state of Wisconsin and our campaign pledges to follow suit with the Secretary of State position.<sup>1</sup>

Jay Schroeder has visited numerous caucuses and Lincoln-Reagan Day Dinners around the state of Wisconsin in recent weeks. When talking to Wisconsinites a similar theme continued to come up. Numerous people if not all didn't actually know what the Secretary of State does anymore for the state of Wisconsin. Nor did they know who held the office even though our current Secretary of State has been in office for 40 years.. This outdated and useless office was viewed by the voting people of Wisconsin as just another room in the capital with no meaning. After discussing our campaign's plan to eliminate the position from our state because of its ineffectiveness, people of all political backgrounds have joined the movement for elimination.

Doug La Follette, the current Secretary of State has never been an efficient or truthful leader of Wisconsin. "In 1970, La Follette while campaigning in the Democratic Primary in Wisconsin's First Congressional District against Les Aspin, produced a brochure supposedly full of quotes from average citizens who played up his family ties to 'Fighting' Bob La Follette. The Wisconsin newspaper revealed that those quotes were stolen from the campaign literature of Michael Harrington, a Massachusetts Democrat."<sup>2</sup>

La Follette has constantly shown the state of Wisconsin that he is an untrustworthy Secretary of State. Because of this, our campaign pledges to remove him from office. We ask Wisconsinites to truly look into the Secretary of State position for Wisconsin and see how inefficient it has become under Doug La Follette. "Our number one goal is to eliminate the Secretary of State position from Wisconsin. I believe that removing an inefficient state position will only continue to help grow Wisconsin."
