Wisconsin State Treasurer and Proud Eau Clairian Sarah Godlewski Endorses Andrew Werthmann for Eau Claire City Council President

[Eau Claire, Wisconsin] - Our campaign just earned the endorsement of Wisconsin State Treasurer and proud Eau Clairian Sarah Godlewski. Sarah cites Andrew's fiscal and budgetary responsiveness as key qualities of his successful leadership.

"I'm excited to endorse acting President Andrew Werthmann," said Sarah. "Over his ten years on City Council, Andrew has demonstrated true fiscal leadership by helping to pass balanced budgets that are responsive to the needs of our community and foster a better quality of life."

Sarah went on to state, "In this global economy where businesses can locate anywhere, cities must capitalize on their strengths to attract good-paying jobs. Andrew understands Eau Claire's economic advantage and his innovative proposals will enable Eau Claire to not only stay competitive but to be a model community. His leadership will ensure Eau Claire continues to be a very special place where business and community can successfully thrive."

"I'm honored and humbled to have earned Sarah Godlewski's endorsement," said Andrew. "Sarah proved herself to be a national business leader before becoming the State Treasurer. She knows what it takes to balance budgets, build up an economy, and grow jobs that pay a living wage. I look forward to working with her to further grow Eau Claire's success and to build a community where no one is left behind."

Sarah Godlewski was instrumental in helping save the Office of the Wisconsin State Treasurer this past April and was elected to the position in November. Andrew Werthmann is the longest-serving City Council member, having first been elected in 2009. Andrew is also the current City Council Vice-President and has served as the acting President since the abrupt resignation of former Council President Kerry Kincaid last summer.
