MOMENTUM CONTINUES FOR NEUBAUER CAMPAIGN

RACINE -- The Judge Lisa Neubauer for Justice campaign today released fundraising numbers for the pre-primary period, with nearly $175,000 raised over past month, and $715,000 on hand as of February 04, 2019. The campaign now has more than 1300 donors, and has raised over $860,000 since announcing last summer. The cover sheet of their finance report is linked here.

“The momentum continues for Neubauer for Justice,” said Tyler Hendricks, campaign manager. “We are seeing record levels of support across the board, including endorsements from more than 320 current and former judges, and a bipartisan group of 50 district attorneys and 25 sheriffs. Wisconsinites all agree that Judge Neubauer is the fair, independent, impartial jurist we need on the Supreme Court.”

After joining the Court of Appeals, Judge Neubauer was elected in 2008 and re-elected in 2014, and has served as Chief Judge since 2015. She had almost two decades of experience as a litigation attorney at Foley & Lardner before joining the appellate court and also served as a law clerk for Judge Barbara Crabb, then-Chief Judge of the United States District Court, Western District of Wisconsin. Judge Neubauer lives in Racine with her husband, Jeff, and they are the proud parents of three children.
