Statement on Governor Evers' announcement he will include nonpartisan redistricting reform in his proposed budget

MILWAUKEE - "We applaud Governor Evers for his leadership as we try to end the map-rigging that has corrupted Wisconsin politics," said Sachin Chheda, Chair of the WI Fair Maps Coalition. "This decision gives us a chance to have representative democracy again in Wisconsin.

"Governor Evers has heeded our call for moving nonpartisan redistricting reform forward, and now the Legislature must follow suit," continued Chheda. "If they aren't afraid of the voters, they won't need to keep rigging the maps."

Sachin Chheda, director of the Fair Elections Project, which organized and launched the Whitford case, will be available for interviews today.
