Madison International Trade Association hosts
*Brexit and NAFTA Updates:
New Opportunities, New Uncertainties

Madison, WI – The Madison International Trade Association will be hosting a lunch seminar to address the latest updates on Brexit and NAFTA Updates: New Opportunities, New Uncertainties. This event takes place on April 9th at the Fluno Center at 601 University Ave. in Madison. Registration starts at 11:30 a.m. and presentations begin at 12:30 p.m. and includes lunch.

The unexpected decision by British voters to leave the European Union has been one of the most historic moments. Since June of 2016, Britain has continued to progress with forging new trade agreements globally. But what will this mean for international trade?

NAFTA also continues to be significant sources of uncertainty and risk in global supply chains...where do we stand and what do we do about it?

Join MITA on April 9th for the latest updates including an on-the-ground report via Skype from RSM partner Simon Hart from their London office.

Prof. Mark Copelovitch, UW Department of Political Science and the La Follette School of Public Affairs, will be on hand to provide his perspective on both issues.

Early Bird Registration deadline is Tuesday, April 2nd and can be made at www.mitatrade.org. The “early bird” registration fee is $35 for members and $50 for non-members. The regular rate of $45 for Members and $60 for Non-Members applies after that.

The event is Co-sponsored by The Jean Monnet European Union Centre of Excellence at UW, RSM LLC, ABS Global and ME Dey.
