Joint Committee on Legislative Organization Announces Anne Sappenfield as Legislative Council Director

[Madison, WI] JClo co-chairs Senate President Roger Roth (R-Appleton) and Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester), along with Senate Minority Leader Jennifer Shilling (D-La Crosse) and Assembly Minority Leader Gordon Hintz (D-Oshkosh), announce Anne Sappenfield as the Director of the Wisconsin Legislative Council.

The Joint Committee on Legislative Organization today unanimously approved Sappenfield's appointment to the director position.

Sappenfield has 25 years of experience working in nonpartisan legislative agencies – the past five years as Special Assistant to the State Auditor and General Counsel at the Wisconsin Legislative Audit Bureau, and 20 years as a Principal Attorney at the Wisconsin Legislative Council prior to that time.

Sappenfield's experience and dedication in state service will be an asset to the legislature. She will begin her role as director on Monday, April 15.

The Legislative Council was created in 1947. Its staff provide nonpartisan assistance and legal advice to legislative standing committees and respond to requests for information and research from legislators.
