Rep. Robyn Vining Welcomes Tribal Leaders to State Capitol

MADISON – Representative Robyn Vining (D-Wauwatosa) is honored to attend the 15th annual State of the Tribes Address to hear Oneida Nation Chairman Tehassi Hill speak on behalf the Great Lakes Inter-Tribal Council. This address will be on Tuesday, April 9th, 2019 at 1:00 PM at the Wisconsin State Capitol. The goal of this address is to improve communication between Wisconsin’s state government and sovereign tribal nations. Representative Vining has released the following statement regarding the State of the Tribes Address:

“The State of the Tribes Address is an important tradition that helps keep our state government informed on issues pertaining to the sovereign tribal nations in Wisconsin. The relationship we have with our eleven tribes is necessary to maintain in order to improve the quality of life of all people. I am determined to continue supporting our children, protecting our environment, and strengthening our communities in partnership with the tribal nations. Forward together!”
