Republican Weekly Radio Address: Speaker Task Forces

Madison... Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester) has this week's GOP Weekly Radio Address that focuses on the three task forces: the Speaker's Task Force on Water Quality, Speaker's Task Force on Suicide Prevention and Speaker's Task Force on Adoption.

Hello, I'm Speaker Robin Vos.

As legislators, our job is to find solutions to the state's biggest problems.

As you may know, Republicans addressed some of the top concerns in the new state budget.

The two-year spending plan increases our investments in education, transportation and health care.

Thanks to Republican leadership, we have a conservative budget that doesn't expand welfare and reduces taxes on the middle class.

With the budget work behind us, Assembly Republicans are taking part in three speaker task forces that focus on several important issues: water quality, suicide prevention and adoption.

Members of the bipartisan task forces are gathering input at public hearings around the state this summer.

I have asked each task force to develop recommendations for legislation that we can take up in the fall.

I'm proud of the work that these committees are doing and look forward to hearing their ideas.
