Steineke Statement on Mark Hogan, WEDC

MADISON – Assembly Majority Leader Jim Steineke (R-Kaukauna) released the following statement regarding Mark Hogan’s last day at the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation (WEDC):

“Over the past four years, Mark Hogan has played an important role in the incredible work WEDC has done for our state. I would like to thank him for his leadership and commitment to ensuring Wisconsin is open for business. Small and large businesses alike have found a home in Wisconsin or expanded their operations here thanks to the work of Mark and WEDC.

“Right down the street in Kaukauna, Bernatello Foods received a WEDC grant that allowed the company to add on a 30,000 square foot addition to its plant that is expected to create 60 new jobs. With the help of WEDC, our community is able to create local, family-supporting jobs.

“As Mark moves on to new ventures, I look forward to seeing WEDC continue to take strides that empower communities and businesses in every part of our state.”
