Milwaukee Job Center Temporarily Closed Due to Power Outage

Address: 4201 N. 27th Street

MILWAUKEE – The Milwaukee Job Center Central, located at 4201 N. 27th Street, will be closed on Monday and Tuesday, September 16 and 17, due to a power outage. The outage was caused by a lightning strike, and crews are working to restore power.

The following affiliate job centers are open and offer resume and job search assistance, as well as connections to Vocational Rehabilitation and Veteran Employment Services staff:

- YWCA Southeast Wisconsin Job Center
1915 N. Doctor Martin Luther King Dr., Milwaukee, WI 53212
- Milwaukee Southeast Job Center (UMOS)
2701 S. Chase Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53207
- Milwaukee Walker's Square Job Center (America Works)
816 W. National Ave., Suite 400, Milwaukee, WI 53204
- Ozaukee County Workforce Development Center
5555 West Highland Rd., Mequon, WI 53092

Those receiving services from Maximus at Milwaukee Job Center Central should contact Maximus for their hours of operation.

As always, information for job seekers is available on JobCenterofWisconsin.com. If you need internet access, your local library can be used as a resource. Job seekers can also call toll-free at (888) 258-9966 for additional information or assistance.
