FOUNDATION FOR LIBERTY AND AMERICAN GREATNESS CEO NICK ADAMS TO KEYNOTE WISCONSIN STATE REPUBLICAN WOMEN BIENNIAL CONVENTION

WFRW Host Biennial Convention in Pewaukee from October 25 -26

The Wisconsin Federation of Republican (WFRW) will hold its biennial convention October 25-26. The Chief Executive Officer of the Foundation for Liberty and American Greatness (FLAG) Nick Adams will keynote the Friday, Oct. 25, evening awards banquet, sharing the story of FLAG and its impact on communities nationwide.

Adams is also the Founder and Executive Director of the Foundation for Liberty and American Greatness (flagusa.org). The organization visits schools nationwide, providing training to increase patriotic pride and bridge the major civics deficiency that currently exists in America. Through FLAG, he has reached over 300,000 students.

“We welcome all to our dinner and awards banquet to hear Nick’s inspirational message about America’s greatness and the beacon of hope that it is for so many around the world,” said Robin Moore, president of the WFRW. “His enthusiasm and love for this country is contagious. It will be a wonderful night to come out and hear him share his story.”

Through FLAG, almost 5000 schools have pledged to place a flag in every school room, say the pledge of allegiance every morning and sing the National Anthem at all sporting events. Several states have made him an ‘Honorary’ citizen. Nick is also an author, a Fox News Contributor and has appeared on many major television and radio programs such as Sean Hannity, Laura Ingram, Hugh Hewitt, 700 Club, The Dennis Prager Show and hundreds more.

Born in Australia, at the age of 21 he became the youngest deputy mayor of Sydney. Nick legally immigrated to the United States in 2016. He believes this is the greatest country ever known to man.
