Rep. Scott Allen released the following statement regarding the shots-fired incident at Waukesha South High School:

“We are grateful for the brave student who reported the possession of a weapon on campus to the School Resource Officer this morning. It is a testament to the student's character. His/her courageous action helped prevent a potentially tragic event.

Our community is also grateful for the professionalism demonstrated by the School Resource Officer and the Waukesha Police Department. While the situation is deeply troubling, we take heart knowing that law enforcement stands ready to selflessly protect innocent lives.”
