41st District Student Art Featured at Capitol

Chosen as Part of Youth Art Month

Madison... State Representative Joan Ballweg (R-Markesan) congratulates students from the 41st Assembly District who were selected as part of March’s Youth Art Month. Student artwork was displayed in the Capitol rotunda through Friday, March 6th.

Rep. Ballweg would like to congratulate the following students and their teachers:

Chase Magadanz, Kendra Kosek, Grace Schoelzel, and Teacher Jesse Lain– Ripon Middle School

Hali Simon, Keziah Fredenburg, Genevieve Stemler, and Teacher Angela Breunig- Berlin High School

James Challoner, Dalton Schrader, Bianca Smith, and Teacher Leah Keller- Adams-Friendship Elementary

Macy Lemke, Florian Breunig, Ava Mattice, and Teacher Lori Rademann- Clay Lamberton Elementary

Merlin Morgan and Teacher Kate Clausius- Wisconsin Dells High School

Nessa Grant, Caledonia Grant, Elliot Heiding, and Teacher Alicia Young- Ripon High School

Owen Pollesch, Briana Heidt, and Teacher Stacey Hein- Markesan High School

“Congratulations to these talented young artists and their teachers,” said Ballweg. “Visual arts help to develop students’ social, intellectual and emotional skills including problem solving and creativity, which employers are looking for. It shows that these programs can pay off down the road in more ways than one.”
