Joan Ballweg Leadership Scholarship Winner

Alissa St. Louis Recognized for Leadership in School and Community

Madison...State Representative Joan Ballweg (R-Markesan) presented one of her 16th Annual Joan Ballweg Leadership Scholarships to Princeton High School Senior, Alissa St. Louis. Each year, five $500 scholarships are awarded to outstanding students across the 41st Assembly District. Each recipient will receive their scholarship and a congratulatory video from Rep. Ballweg virtually.

“These scholarships are awarded to students who are active in and outside of the classroom, achieve good grades and are role models and leaders among their community,” said Ballweg. “Alissa is a hardworking student who starts school at her school co-op at 6 AM, is active on the volleyball team as captain, and has been class president for multiple years. This year’s group of leaders are ambitious and inspiring, and I know they will continue to do great things as they go on to pursue their degrees.”

Alissa St. Louis, Princeton High School, is a strong student leader. Her impressive work ethic, leadership, and academic success have led her to attend UW-Lacrosse. She has demonstrated leadership at both her high school and her community, having helped with a cancer fundraiser called “Dig Pink” at her school.

“Congratulations, Alissa! You’ve excelled as a student leader and have made your parents and community proud,” said Ballweg. “Your next challenge is to take what you’ve learned through these experiences and go forward, making Wisconsin a better place for us all.”

Awards were also given to Theo Rauch of Ripon, Allison Wendt of Berlin, Erin Pease of Adams-Friendship, and Patrick Derleth of Berlin.
