SOUTH MILWAUKEE -- Today, South Milwaukee Mayor Erik Brooks announced a number of key endorsements of his campaign for the Wisconsin State Assembly District 21, including the following:

State Senator. Chris Larson

State Representative Evan Goyke

State Representative Jonathan Brostoff

State Representative Christine Sinicki

State Assembly Minority Leader Representative Gordon Hintz

"Erik will be a terrific representative for our neighbors in the 21st Assembly District. I look forward to standing with him in Madison for strong communities, strong schools, more affordable health care, and other issues important to the citizens of South Milwaukee, Oak Creek, and Franklin. As mayor, Erik has consistently brought people together to solve problems and move our city forward. Erik is connected with his community and he will work on their behalf and amplify their voice in the state Capitol."

-- Sen. Chris Larson

Wisconsin State Senate 7th District

"Mayor Erik Brooks knows how to get stuff done. He's going to bring his pragmatic approach to Madison, where it is sorely needed. I look forward to working with him to support our local governments, world class schools, and access affordable, quality healthcare."

-- Rep. Evan Goyke

Wisconsin State Assembly 18th District

"Erik has spent more than a decade as an elected official working with others to solve problems and get things done. He will do the same thing for the 21st District, and I look forward to working with him in Madison. Erik knows we are stronger together. I proudly stand with him and support him."

-- Rep. Jonathan Brostoff, Wisconsin State Assembly 19th District

"The 21st District needs Erik as its representative. He knows the issues important to voters because he lives them every day as mayor, father, small business owner, and lover of his community. He will fight for the South Shore, and I look forward to working with him to bring people together in Madison."

-- Rep. Christine Sinicki, Wisconsin State Assembly 20th District

Brooks said the following in regards to the endorsements "We need to take our state legislature in a new direction. One where we break the status quo and address the challenges brought on by the current health pandemic. I'm honored and privileged to have earned the support of so many elected officials who believe in this campaign for change. I look forward to continuing to earn the belief and trust of community leaders, elected officials and most importantly the residents of the district I hope to represent in Madison.”
