Griffin Leads Fundraising Race in SD28

Small Business Owner and Attorney Posts $60k Raised, $40k Cash-on-hand

Greendale, WI. (June 8, 2020) — Small business owner and attorney, Dan Griffin, leads the crowded Republican primary field in the 28th Senate District by posting more than $40,000 cash-on-hand and raising more than $60,000 in the most recent fundraising period.

“My message of creating new jobs, cutting taxes, and getting Wisconsin working again is resonating with hardworking families throughout the District. I have a proven track record of working with main street businesses to help grow their operations and contribute to the strength of our communities. Voters are responding,” said Griffin. “As a State Senator, I intend to hold Governor Evers and the government bureaucrats accountable to ensure our communities are safe, property taxes are held in check, and small businesses have the support they need to thrive.”

Griffin added that outgoing Sen. David Craig demonstrated the importance of electing a leader with conservative principles to enhance the lives of district families. SD28 is an open seat due to the retirement of Sen. David Craig (R-Big Bend).

Trailing Griffin in fundraising reports were 28th Senate District candidates Julian Bradley, Jim Engstrand, Steve Bobowski, and Marina Croft.
