Indivisible groups endorse Democrat Tom Palzewicz for Congress

Wauwatosa, Wis. — Indivisible Tosa and Indivisible Lake Country have jointly endorsed Tom Palzewicz, a Democrat running for the 5th Congressional District. U.S. Rep. Jim Sensenbrenner is retiring after holding the seat for more than 40 years.

“We’re proud to support Tom Palzewicz in his campaign to represent the people of the 5th Congressional District,” said Chuck Rohrer, chair of Indivisible Tosa’s endorsement committee. “We don’t need another politician who will rubber-stamp the Trump agenda and who cares more about special interests than the people of our district. We know we can count on Tom to be a strong champion for all Wisconsinites, and we’re excited to help him flip the 5th.”

Indivisible Tosa and Indivisible Lake Country used a multistep endorsement process that involved researching candidates’ platforms; considering answers to a questionnaire that covered a range of issues, including voting rights, immigration, health care, inequality, workers’ rights and more; and conducting an online vote. Members who participated in the process were unanimous in their support of Palzewicz. Among the reasons cited in their survey responses:

“We have been looking to change who represents the 5th CD for a long time. ... Tom resonates with the values of our community and gives future generations a voice in steering our politics in a positive direction.”

“Tom is a very strong candidate who stands for my values.”

“I’ve known Tom for four years. He knows what this part of Wisconsin truly needs to improve Wisconsin and to help all our residents.”

“Tom is an articulate, smart, fair and kind person. We need him in Congress!”

“He would undoubtedly be a voice in Washington that we could be proud of.”
