Gov. Evers Announces Racine-Area Schools Eligible for Over $2.5 Million in Coronavirus Relief Funds

MADISON – Today, Gov. Evers announced that 155 public school districts, independent charter schools, and tribal schools are eligible to apply for the $46.6 million provided to Wisconsin through the Governor’s Emergency Education Relief Fund (GEER Fund), established under the Federal CARES Act. Racine Unified School District (RUSD) is eligible for over $2.5 million in aid to help ensure students have the resources they need to learn this fall. Rep. Greta Neubauer (D-Racine) released the following statement in support:

“I’m so grateful for this additional funding to support Racine schools,” Rep. Neubauer said. “As Racine students and families cope with the uncertainty surrounding education during COVID-19, this funding will help to ensure we have the resources to support them when school resumes in the fall.”

Racine-area schools are eligible for over $2.5 million in emergency relief funds. For a full list of local education agencies eligible for funds and funding amounts, please visit here:
