LOCAL OFFICIALS ACROSS 10TH SENATE DISTRICT ENDORSE ROB STAFSHOLT

[New Richmond, Wis.] – With less than two weeks until the August 11 election, State Representative Rob Stafsholt announced the endorsement of several local officials in his campaign for State Senate. These leaders join Governor Scott Walker, Lt. Governor Rebecca Kleefisch and other prominent conservatives in backing Rob as the best candidate to win back the 10th Senate District.

Rob is pleased to welcome the following leaders to his campaign:

St. Croix County District Attorney Michael Nieskes
St. Croix Falls Mayor Kirk Anderson
North Hudson Village President Stan Wekin
St. Croix County Board Member Paul Berning
Former St. Croix County Sheriff John Shilts
Former St. Croix County Board Member Andy Brinkman
Former St. Croix County Board Member Tom Coulter

“I’m thrilled to have the support of local leaders across the 10th Senate District,” said Representative Rob Stafsholt. “I have a proud record of advancing conservative reforms and delivering results. In the Senate, I will continue to fight for the hard-working people of Northwest Wisconsin.”

*Previously announced endorsements include Gov. Scott Walker, Lt. Gov. Rebecca Kleefisch, Rep. Gae Magnafici, and Rep. Romaine Quinn, among others.

Rob Stafsholt is a businessman and 4th generation farmer. In addition to helping manage his family’s farm for over 25 years, Rob’s business experience includes previously running his family’s food processing company and recently starting and operating a waste disposal company.
