Gov. Evers Kicks Off Third Evening of 2020 Democratic National Convention

MILWAUKEE -- Gov. Tony Evers tonight kicked off the third evening of the 2020 Democratic National Convention. The governor's remarks welcomed viewers to Wisconsin while underscoring what is at stake with the upcoming election. Below are Gov. Evers' remarks as prepared for delivery.

Good evening.

I'm Tony Evers, and I'm incredibly proud to be the 46th Governor of the great state of Wisconsin.

We were really looking forward to having you here in America's Dairyland. Unfortunately, the pandemic means we can't do that this year.

But what unites us is far, far greater than what divides us. So even though we can't be with each other, I know we have a shared sense of purpose--to elect Joe Biden and Kamala Harris.

This November is about returning kindness, respect, empathy, and civility back to the White House.

And that's who Joe and Kamala are. Because they know--especially during challenging times like these--the problems we face can only be solved by all of us, together.

So, folks, let's get to work.
