JACOB MALINOWSKI STATEMENT ON SPECIAL SESSION:

“DO YOUR DAMN JOB”

Republicans in Madison indicate no new legislation until January 1st, 2021

GREENDALE, WI — Today, Rep. Skowronski and Assembly Republicans attended the special session on policing called by Governor Evers and immediately gaveled it into recess.

This is the first time the Wisconsin State Assembly has shown up for work in over 135 days, and Assembly leadership indicated they will not vote on legislation until next year.

Results of Special Session on Policing:

Duration: 18 seconds

Bills Debated: 0

Votes Taken: 0

Jacob Malinowski, Democratic candidate for Skowronski's Assembly Seat, released the following statement:

“Legislators get paid $52,999 a year. Do your damn job.”
