DEBBIE JACQUES CONFIRMED AS 89th DISTRICT ASSEMBLY CANDIDATE

SUAMICO – Today, the Wisconsin Elections Committee confirmed Debbie Jacques’ candidacy for the 89th District Assembly covering parts of Marinette, Oconto and Brown counties.

Debbie has the critical business savvy and political experience necessary to get the job done, representing the needs of the constituents of the 89th on a range of important issues.

“The people of the 89th District want a fighter. Whether it’s election integrity, preserving our freedoms, or economic growth, the constituents of the 89th District can be assured that I will work for them and never forget my role as a public servant. With over three decades of business experience and my work with the Trump Victory Campaign, I know how to bring results, not rhetoric to Madison on behalf of the people of the 89th. Public service is my passion, and my inspiration is the conservative movement in Wisconsin fighting for our freedoms and way of life.”

Debbie Jacques been a resident of Brown County for over 35 years. Debbie is a proud mother of five children, and has three grandchildren. She has served her community, volunteered at church, and donates her time and talents to various local entities and nonprofits. She’s a proud member of the NRA, unapologetically Pro-Life, and will work hard to maintain her constituents’ freedoms.

Debbie’s record of results ranges from her business successes to her community leadership. She has been a small-business owner for over 20 years in Brown County. She currently owns Under the Lights of Lambeau, a popular Green Bay Packers destination. Her past experiences include her role as a Sales Manager for WJLW Broadcasting where she directed sales meetings and prepared yearly budgets, as well as owning and operating a day care center for 15 years.

Most recently, Debbie was employed by the Trump Victory Campaign as an integral part of the campaign’s organization and fieldwork in Wisconsin. She now serves as chair for Women for Trump in Brown County where she engages women to mobilize on behalf of conservative causes and support the President’s America First agenda.

While currently a resident and business owner in Green Bay, Debbie often recreates and hunts in the 89th District. She will take permanent residence in the 89th District area of Suamico in the coming months.

Debbie holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Management and Communications from Concordia College.
