Rep. Loudenbeck Begins Sixth Term in State Assembly

Madison- Representative Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) took the oath of office to represent the 31st Assembly District today, the first official day of the 105th session of the Wisconsin Legislature.

"Inauguration day is very humbling and special. Taking the Constitutional oath of office is a distinct reminder of what an honor and a privilege it is to serve the people of Wisconsin's 31st Assembly District," said Loudenbeck.

During the 105th Session, Rep. Loudenbeck will be serving on several boards and committees. She was reappointed Vice Co-Chair for the Joint Committee on Finance and appointed Chair for the Joint Committee on Information Policy and Technology. She will also continue to serve as Chair of the State Capitol and Executive Residence Board and a member of the State Fair Park Board.

Danielle Zimmerman will continue as Rep. Loudenbeck's Chief of Staff. Zimmerman has worked in Rep. Loudenbeck's office for seven years and handles committee issues, policy research, and media communications.

Emily Anderson is Rep. Loudenbeck's Legislative Assistant. Anderson joined Rep. Loudenbeck's office in the fall of 2019. She will be handling Rep. Loudenbeck's schedule and constituent casework.

"I am very proud of the exceptional team in my office. Danielle and Emily are both highly qualified individuals with deep roots in the district and surrounding areas. I am confident they will ensure committee activities, communications and constituent services are handled in a timely and professional manner," said Rep. Loudenbeck.
