“WISCONSIN UTILITY LOCAL UNIONS EXPAND GOVERNMENT OUTREACH”

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local Utility Unions are excited to add Nick Webber to their government affairs lineup.

Webber, who currently works as a membership and business development representative for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 953 representing utility, construction, maintenance, and manufacturing workers in western Wisconsin and surrounding states, will be responsible for outreach and advocacy efforts for utility workers in the state of Wisconsin, along with his current position.

“Nick’s knowledge, energy, and relationships with working people across this state make him exactly who our hard-working members need advocating for us in the Capitol.”

-Nate Rasmussen, Business Manager, IBEW Local 2304 (Madison Gas & Electric)

Nick has been with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers since 2018 and is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He is an active member in the Eau Claire community, where he currently resides and goes fishing whenever he can.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local Unions 965, 2304, 953, and 2150 represent more than 3,500 members working for Wisconsin utilities including We Energies, Alliant Energy, Xcel Energy, Madison Gas and Electric, Dairyland Power Cooperative, and rural electric cooperatives across the state.
