COUNCIL PRESIDENT CAVALIER JOHNSON, SEN. CHRIS LARSON AND OTHERS ENDORSE ANGELITO TENORIO FOR TREASURER

WEST ALLIS, WI — West Allis Alderman and candidate for Wisconsin State Treasurer Angelito Tenorio announced today that his campaign has earned the endorsements of state and local elected officials from across Wisconsin including Milwaukee Common Council President Cavalier Johnson, State Sen. Chris Larson, State Rep. Greta Neubauer, and more.

"Angelito Tenorio will be a champion of the progressive financial policies we need to move this state forward," said Milwaukee Common Council President Cavalier Johnson. "I know he'll work tirelessly as Treasurer to build a more sustainable and prosperous future for every Wisconsinite and I'm proud to endorse him as the best candidate for the job."

"From the incredible work he's done to support the LGBTQ+ community, communities of color, and his neighbors as an Alder in West Allis, to his service in the military and to our shared planet at Wisconsin Conservation Voters, Angelito Tenorio has proven himself to be a dedicated public servant," said State Sen. Chris Larson. "Angelito has the passion, experience, and perspective we need in the Treasurer's office."

"I know that Angelito Tenorio will serve our state well as our next Treasurer," said State Rep. Greta Neubauer. "Angelito will ensure we invest according to our values, support local communities, and create a brighter future for all Wisconsinites."

Additional state and local leaders endorsing Tenorio include:

Rep. Jonathan Brostoff, Rep. Mark Spreitzer, Rep. Christine Sinicki, Rep. Evan Goyke, Milwaukee Co. Clerk George Christensen, Milwaukee Co. Sup. Shawn Rolland, Fort Atkinson Common Council President Mason Becker, Beloit Common Council President Clinton Anderson, Former State Senate Candidate Nada Elmikashfi, and former Eau Claire Alder Mai Xiong.

"I'm incredibly honored to be endorsed by so many state and local leaders from all across our great state," said Tenorio. "Our coalition of support continues to grow every day and it speaks volumes to how much Wisconsinites want a strong progressive voice to remain in the Treasurer's office, to fight for our shared values, hold our leaders financially accountable, and reinvest our tax money back into our schools, libraries, and communities."
